Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed Apr 7, 2005 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to because:
- a. Reference numerals 1-4 are used to identify features in Figs. 1-4 and modifications of those features in Figs. 5+.
 - b. The projections and recesses recited in claim 2 are not identified by reference numerals in the drawings and description.
3. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

4. The disclosure is objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.77(c) for failing to include section headings.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mazziotti, US 5,222,914. Fig. 2 shows a universal joint 20 comprising: an inner hub 26, an outer hub 28, balls 40 and a cage 70. Figs. 2 & 3 show that each race has two sets of running grooves alternately opening at the drive and power take off sides of the universal joint and that the inner race 26 is comprised of elements 34. The bottom of Fig. 2 shows one of the first elements 34 that comprise first inner running grooves 38 opening at the drive side and the top of Fig. 2 shows one of the second elements that comprise second inner running grooves opening at the power take off side. Figs. 12-14 show the elements of the inner race releasably connected by means of a screw connection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mazziotti. Mazziotti shows a universal joint 20 comprising six balls 40, but does not show eight balls. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the universal joint by using eight balls since such a modification would have involved a mere duplication of parts. The duplication of parts for a multiplied effect has no patentable significance and is considered well within the purview and obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. St. Regis Paper Co. v. Bemis Co., Inc. 193 USPQ 8, 11 (7th Cir. 1977).

9. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Aucktor, US 3,475,924. Fig. 1 shows a universal joint comprising all the limitations of the claims except the inner hub 15 is an integral component instead of one comprised of two separate elements. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the inner race by making it comprised of two elements since such a modification would have involved merely making parts of an integral assembly separable. Making parts of an integral assembly separable is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art. In Re Dulberg, 129 USPQ 348, 349 (CCPA 1961). Making the joint with eight balls instead of just the six shown would have been obvious for the same reason noted in item 8 above.
